

horacio fumero trio

Horacio Fumero, key musician in our jazz scene, presents his trio where two generations of musicians get together: Fumero, who was part of Tete Montoliu trio until he died; with Joan Monné, a pianist with a long trajectory and a great sensibility, and David Xirgu a classic at home. It's a trio of aces in a very special concert, which revise standards signed by Fumero. Be-bop and jazz with Latin rhythms performed by an amazing band that connects easily with the public.

Horacio Fumero, bass.

Joan Monné, piano.

David Xirgu, drums.
