

Perico Sambeat begins a new adventure, trying to fill his experimental side, electric and risky with a hypnotic quartet that wants to mix the jazz with hip-hop, groove jazz and funk to the limit.

Perico Sambeat, the saxophone player that throughout his musical career has covered everything from bebop to free jazz, from funk to flamenco jazz. In the search of new musical directions, this project is the next step.

Marc Ayza, the Catalan drummer well known for his unique style of blending jazz with the elements of hip hop. The latest example is the record "Offering" (FSNT)

Albert Sanz, keyboard player with deep roots in jazz and improvised music. Imaginative, "all ears", and with a groove he adds a special flavour to this band.

And Kumar, Cuban hip hop artist resident in Barcelona, known for his collaborations with bands in the mixed scene, combining different musical traditions. In this project his unique style and originality really stands out. He recently released an album that he's currently presenting around Europe.

Perico Sambeat, sax, pedals & effects.

Kumar, vocals.

Albert Sanz, keyboards.

Marc Ayza, drums.
